

Permanent Collection Big Rock Garden Park

Community Awards Sculptures

Zoe Garden Wall:

- Lifetime Community Service Award selected annual
- Carved brick sculpture by Donna Dobberfuhl of Texas.

The Messenger:

- Service to Seniors Award – Whatcom Council on Aging selects awardees annually.
- 7' tall stainless steel work by Oregon artist Devin Laurence Field.

Tree of Life:

- William J. Dittrich Award recognizing leadership in Parks and Recreation selected annually by the Whatcom Parks & Recreation Foundation.
- Granite and basalt by Bellingham sculptor Michael Jacobsen.

Lipchitziana:

- Benito Juarez Award—Honoring Hispanic Community Leaders Awardees
- A 9' tall enameled steel work by SEBASTIAN of Mexico.

Lives in the Balance:

- Bellingham Children's Monument
- A work with two bronze children and massive red granite walls, 24' long by 12' wide by local artist Michael Jacobsen.

Kwakiutl Sun Mask:

- Whatcom County Human Rights Task Force Annual Award
- 7' diameter cedar carving by Jimmy Joseph of Alert Bay, Alaska.

Memorials

Temple Guardian: 7' wide x 5' tall corten steel sculpture by Arnie Garborg of La Conner. Memorial to Arnie Hanna

Turtle: Carrera Marble by David Marshall. Purchased for the park in memory of Bernard Bolter.

Adam: Carved in Carrera marble by Russian artist Alexei Kazantsev, this is a two-foot tall classical nude sculpture.

Ancestor's Path: Enamelled steel wall piece by Seattle artist Pamela Harlow.

Cobra Dreams: 3' tall basalt carving atop a 3' tall basalt base by Oregon artist Elaine MacKay.

Embrace by Pasha Stinson of Bainbridge Island, Washington.

Endangered Species: An installation of five large-than-life heads in a bed of sand 16' across by Hungarian artist Georg Schmerholz.

Eve: A companion piece to the Adam work by Alexei Kazantsev.

Garden Basin: A cast concrete basin 3' high x 3' wide by Oregon artist Marge Hammond-Farness.

Garden Vessel: A 4' tall stoneware vessel by LaConner artist Clayton James.

Gorgon Steel by CA Scott. Gift of the Drakes.

Head: Cast bronze by David Marshall.

Intuition Free: A life-size bronze horse by Ann Morris of Lummi Island.

Natura: A life-size woman carved in Carrera marble by Hawaiian artist Charles J. Armstrong.

Peace: Carved in limestone by Tracy Powell.

Positive Spirit: Steel and cast glass by Shirley Erickson.

River Rocks: A 24' long installation in granite boulders by LaConner artist Clayton James.

Sap by Michael Decker, Douglas fir, resin & steel.

Spiral Fractal #2 by Don Anderson of Everson, Washington.

Stabile: A 7' high kinetic work in painted steel by internationally known Czech artist Jan Zach.

State Street Totem by Reg Akright, Everett, Washington. State Street Totem is made from a granite curb stone removed from State Street in Bellingham when cement curbs were being created.

Sun Gate: Bronze & marble by David Marshall.

Sweetwater by C.A. Scott of Bellingham, Washington.

The Three Musicians: Steel by CA Scott.

Turn: Cypress and copper by Lee Imonen.

Twining: 4' high abstract work in carved cement by Deborah Wilson of Vernon, BC, Canada.

Untitled by Pat Kuehnel of Ferndale Washington is made of polished stainless steel.

Variation on a Sphere: Bronze by David Marshall.

Volatus : Steel, polished aluminum and copper patina by Rodney Carroll of Baltimore, Maryland.