

INTERURBAN TRAIL

TRAIL DESCRIPTION

The Interurban Trail connects the Fairhaven District with Larrabee State Park following a former railroad bed. Easy trail, except for a steep canyon section through Arroyo Park. Mostly wooded with some scenic views of Bellingham Bay, Chuckanut Bay and the San Juan Islands.

TRAILHEADS

North access in the Fairhaven District at 10th St. and Donovan Ave. South access with fee parking at Larrabee State Park. Several parking areas available - see map.

MILEAGE

- 1.8 miles - 10th St. and Donovan Ave. to Arroyo Park.
- 6.6 miles - 10th St. and Donovan Ave. to Larrabee State Park.

ARROYO PARK TRAILS

TRAIL DESCRIPTION

Moderate to difficult trails through densely wooded area. Chuckanut Creek runs through this park.

TRAILHEADS

Three parking areas – two east of Chuckanut Drive on Old Samish Highway. The third is at the North Chuckanut Trailhead parking lot south of Old Samish Highway on the east side of Chuckanut Drive.

MILEAGE

- 0.75 mile - Old Samish Hwy. to California St.

Arroyo Park was established in 1923. Facilities include parking and trails. The park is one starting point for Whatcom County and Larrabee State Parks' extensive trail systems in the Chuckanut Mountains.

INTERURBAN TRAIL MAP

.6 mi. 10th St. to Rotary Trailhead
 1.2 mi. Rotary Trailhead to Old Samish Rd.
 .8 mi. Old Samish Rd to California St.
 4 mi. California St. to Larrabee State Park

 Primary Trail (6'-12' wide)
 Secondary Trail (2'-4' wide)
 Minor Trails (1'-1 1/2' wide)

