NATURE OF WORK:

Manages the departments training program. Serves as the Department Health and Safety Officer. Works closely and coordinates with Operations Battalion Chiefs, Fire Captains, administration, and all county fire agencies.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

This position is distinguished from other supervisory positions in the Fire Department by its responsibility for the training program of the Fire Department. Recommends, plans, organizes, develops, coordinates, delivers and provides the supervisory oversight required for the efficient and effective management of the training program.

SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIPS:

Reports to an Assistant Chief. Directly supervises personnel assigned to the training division and exercises functional supervision of Battalion Chiefs and Captains during training activities. Serves as a staff officer and member of the Fire Department management team.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS:

1. Prepares the annual budget for the Division and presents it to the Assistant Chief; directs expenditure of Division funds in accordance with budget appropriations as approved by the City Council.
2. Responsible for short and long range planning to provide timely, realistic, and verifiable training to the Department. Analyzes Department training needs and makes recommendations on new programs and training proposals. Defines goals and objectives and makes recommendations to the Assistant Chief.
3. Supervises personnel assigned to the training division. Assigns work and is responsible for training, performance evaluations, corrective actions and discipline. Creates and coordinates Division work schedules.

4. Routinely coordinates and/or delivers advanced training in the following disciplines:
  - Emergency scene management/Incident Command
  - Chief Officer development
  - Administrative/Personnel Management
5. Schedules and coordinates ongoing training activities. Assures that training needs are closely coordinated with operational demands.
6. Participates in recommending personnel actions such as transfers, discipline, promotions and discharges department wide. Conducts, assists and coordinates training of new officers. Initiates or recommends new methods, procedures or equipment in order to improve working conditions and overall departmental operations. Assists and trains supervisors on their duties. Assists personnel in solving work problems, such as scheduling conflicts and emergencies. Reviews reports written by supervised personnel for content and accuracy. Monitors personnel performance and does performance appraisals, as required.
7. As the Department Health and Safety Officer, facilitates the Health and Safety meetings; tracks, compiles, and publishes injury and hazard data; convenes Accident Review Boards and After- Action Reviews, routinely serves as an Incident Safety Officer, and makes recommendations for program improvements.
8. Maintains training records. Assures that all training is documented. Publishes and distributes regular reports to track trends and compliance.
9. Researches emergency scene practices and procedures and makes recommendations for improvement.
10. Develops and maintains comprehensive policies, procedures, and protocols as necessary for the efficient operations of the Division and its activities. Identifies deficiencies and develops new policies and procedures to improve the effectiveness of operations and minimize liability.
11. Coordinates with Battalion Chiefs and other Program/Division managers to provide consistency in department programs, goals and objectives.

ADDITIONAL WORK PERFORMED:

1. May oversee the management of emergencies using industry standards of incident command, as necessary. Directs crews as to proper emergency methods and coordinates the efforts of assigned personnel to maximize operational efficiency and safety. Summons additional resources and support agencies, as needed, to manage an emergency. The ability to fill this function does not enable the Training Division Chief to be assigned to the Operation's Battalion Chief position.
2. May assume command of the Department in the absence of the Chief or Assistant Chief.
3. When necessary performs the tasks and duties of a firefighter.

4. Other related duties as assigned.
