JOB SUMMARY:

Responsible for the prosecution of misdemeanor and municipal ordinance violations in Municipal Court.

SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIPS:

Reports to the City Attorney. Receives oversight and work direction from the Lead Prosecutor. Works under general guidance and direction in accordance with City policies, procedures, codes, ordinances and various State and federal regulations. May provide technical guidance to subordinate staff and direct the work of legal support staff as assigned.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE JOB:

1. Prosecutes misdemeanors and gross misdemeanors, traffic offenses and other municipal ordinance violations in Municipal Court, which includes determining what charges to file and deciding whether to plea bargain or reduce charges.
2. Provides advice to police officers regarding appropriate charges and methods of law enforcement by determining current status of law based on legislative and judicial changes.
3. Contacts victims, which includes requesting subpoenas, gathering information, evaluating evidence, determining whether a victim will assist in prosecution, and monitoring the victim's safety.
4. Conducts legal research, interviewing witnesses, deciding discovery methods to pursue, and making settlement suggestions for pursuing the defense of the City in conducting the prosecution of criminal cases and motion hearings.
5. Conducts criminal jury and bench trials which includes presenting the City's case, instructing the jury, determining sentencing recommendations, and resolving evidentiary issues, voir dire questions, and trial procedures.
6. Prepares and conducts arraignments by reading police reports, summarizing factual elements of crimes, evaluating probable cause, determining bail amounts and sentencing recommendations, presenting factual basis for plea, making offers to defendant, and determining whether a reduction or dismissal is merited.
7. Prepares and investigates pretrial cases by reviewing reports, evaluating evidence, locating missing information or evidence, contacting and negotiating with defense attorneys, determining the likelihood of success, and making sentencing recommendations.
8. Conducts pretrial hearings by setting motions, trial dates, or offering guilty plea to the court.

9. Conducts no-contact order rescission hearings and contested infraction and motion hearings by presenting the City's case, determining whether the rescission of a no-contact order threatens victim safety, and evaluating legal issues and relevant case law.
10. Prepares and responds to appeals of trial court decisions including direct appeals after trial, habeas corpus petitions, and infraction appeals.
