JOB SUMMARY:

Serves as confidential administrative assistant to the Library Director and performs a variety of administrative, office management, payroll, executive support, and budgeting and accounting support duties for the Library.

SUPERVISORY RELATIONSHIP:

Reports to the Library Director. May supervise support staff, including selection, training, evaluation, and handling performance improvement issues. Works independently under the guidance of City and departmental policies and procedures and applicable state laws and regulations.

ESSENTIAL FUNCTIONS OF THE JOB:

1. Supports work of the Library Director. Screens incoming calls, mail, visitors, and meeting requests. Manages Library Director's calendar. Communicates information on behalf of the Director. Prepares reports, grant applications, policies, studies, Powerpoint slides, and illustrative graphs and charts.
2. Prepares routine and confidential correspondence. Receives, redirects, and responds to a variety of general and confidential inquiries from citizens and employees; assists in coordinating responses.
3. Supports work of the Library Board of Trustees under direction from the Library Director. Prepares and publishes meeting agendas, board packets, and makes all meeting arrangements, including noticing meetings to local media. Assures Board members receive meeting information in a timely manner. Serves as assistant to the Library Board, attends Library Board meetings, takes notes, and prepares Board minutes. Assembles and compiles information for statistical activity reports. Schedules appointments and arranges meetings for Library Director and Board members.
4. Manages office operations for the Library. Develops office procedures and performs administrative tasks involving payroll, timekeeping, budgeting, accounting, and personnel. Orders and maintains inventory of all office supplies.
5. Responsible for Department's records system. Develops and maintains the administrative office filing system, maintains accurate record of contracts and other important documents, routing for signature as required, and updates various policies and procedure manuals under direction of the Library Director. Prepares records retention schedules, arranges for transmittal of records to Records Center for storage and/or destruction and arranges retrieval of materials as needed. Responds to Public Record requests under direction of the Library Director.

6. Prepares Library's annual budget documents and monitors and records budget expenditures, including: gathering and compiling budget information; estimating the needs and costs for supplies and equipment; researching information needed for purchase requisitions; determining areas of potential over or under expenditures; and initiating journal entries. Initiates and prepares appropriate City Council agenda bills relating to the Library's budget. Prepares a variety of financial reports for the Director and Library Board of Trustees. Assists in the preparation of Library's annual financial and statistical reports.
7. Performs all accounts receivable and payable activities: prepares requisitions for Purchase Orders; reviews vendor invoices for accuracy and enters them into financial software for payment and archiving; maintains Gift Fund accounts and monitors Whatcom Community Foundation accounts; counts and reconciles money from coin-operated equipment and ensures equipment is maintained in good operating condition; reconciles Point of Sale revenues with Integrated Library System reports; prepares daily deposit; verifies and remits refunds; tracks and monitors grants; maintains petty cash accounts; and reconciles all Library credit card statements.
8. Acts as primary time administrator for department. Initiates and processes all electronic personnel actions for Library staff including appointments, terminations, and changes. Collects and maintains record of Volunteer background checks.
9. Collects compensation and comparative data for union negotiations and provides confidential negotiations support.
10. Arranges local and out-of-town reservations for conferences, transportation, and lodging. Initiates travel authorizations and compiles back-up documentation.

ADDITIONAL WORK PERFORMED:

1. Responsible for office asset inventory.
2. Distributes and maintains records for meter passes and temporary parking permits.
3. May type and track management proposals and prepare spreadsheets and other documents for presentation in negotiations.
4. Performs other related work of a similar nature and level.
